

THE EPIPHANY SCHOOL

Uncovering Gifts for the Journey

Parent Insights

As our mission and values clearly express, we are committed to partnering with you in providing a holistic education that will allow your son/daughter to soar to new heights in mind, body & spirit. We recognize that you are, and will always remain, your child's primary teachers. We applaud you for all the effort that you have invested to help him/her reach this exciting phase of his/her life. We value the personal insights that you are willing to offer here so that we can better know and serve your child.

What would you say is your child's most admirable quality?

What about him/her has made you most proud?

At this point, what would you say is his/her predominant feeling about starting school at Epiphany (excitement, fear, combo)?

In what school subjects has your child been most successful? Which have been the most challenging?

What would you say most upsets your child? What helps him/her work through frustration?

What special interests/abilities/hobbies does your child have, even those about which others might be unaware?

When you have had to address a problematic behavior, what approach/strategy have you found works best with your child?

When he/she has flourished in school, what have been the factors that led to these good experiences? What was happening when things just didn't go well?

The most important thing that teachers should know about my child is that ...

If you really want to get and keep my child's attention, I'd suggest that...

As a student, I'd like to see my child get better at ...

As a person, I'd like to see my child get better at ...

When you think about your child on his/her graduation day from Epiphany, what kind of person do you hope he/she will have become as a result of his/her experiences here?

Would like to share any final thoughts?

Thanks for taking the time to share this information. We are honored that you have entrusted your child to our care. Please continue to communicate openly with us so that we can make his/her experiences here as positive as possible!
